Thank You Letter from Forest Li,

December 14, 2016

Dear clients,

2016 is almost over. Thank you for using our services and supporting us in 2016; wish you and family a happy holiday season and prosperous 2017.

Tax rule changes all the time, and the Liberal government has applied many new policies. It has aimed to reduce income tax for the middle class, combine Canada child benefits, relieve tuition fees for secondary education, strengthen house purchase and sale records, and so on.

You may have heard about the CRA's (Canada Revenue Agency) new service called "Auto File My Return". It sounds like a great idea, but you need to be careful: CRA cannot auto fill in most of the tax saving credits for you; you will not get maximum tax benefits if you do not know how to claim the credits. We are working hard to incorporate the new policies into our services. You can trust us to follow the rules, claim all applicable tax saving credits, minimize tax liabilities, and maximize tax benefits for you.

Please be aware of fraudulent emails or telephone calls, pretended sent to you by CRA, asking for personal identification and bank information, or asking you to pay money. People get victimized every year by such scams. CRA never asks your bank information through email, and CRA cannot threaten you "to pay or put you in jail". CRA always initiates communication with you through mails, NOT through email or telephone.

You can set up online communication with CRA through "My Account" on CRA's website, and you can find tax and security information by visiting www.canada.ca, a new website of the federal government.

We had a very rewarding summer: we built a beautiful deck and a gazebo in our back yard. With spectacular view and convenient access, we enjoy the project very much.

Our office will be closed for the Christmas holidays from December 24 to January 14. But please call or email us for your urgency, we will get back to you as soon as possible during this period of time.

All the best for you and your family! See you in 2017!

Happy Holidays!

Forest Li, Director
